PRO JOB TIPS FOR YOUNG ADULTS

GREENSBORO, NC (August 27, 2004) – As an increasing number of teens pound the pavement in search of fewer and fewer jobs, it's more important than ever that young adults learn how to stand out from the crowd when seeking employment. On Wednesday, Sept. 15 at 7 pm, area professionals will be on hand to speak to teenagers at the Greensboro Public Library as part of the Pro Job Tips for Young Adults program.

Participants will learn how to create an eye-catching resume, fill out a job application and conduct themselves at a job interview.

This program will be held at Central Library, 219 N. Church St., and is free to the public. Free parking will be available in the Church Street parking deck. For more information, call Doris Jessup at 373-3764 or visit www.greensborolibrary.org.

The City of Greensboro exists to partner with the community to build an increased quality of life for Greensboro. Critical to the City of Greensboro's success is building public trust, maintaining a work environment which fosters employee commitment to public service, and making a difference in the lives of our citizens.
